WELCOME TO THE NFRW MEMBERSHIP HANDBOOK

Membership is the heartbeat of the National Federation of Republican Women. It is an opportunity for women to find their voice and make a difference! When you become a member of a local club you have a voice in that club, as well as with the state federation and the national federation. The more members who are recruited, the stronger and louder the voice!

The NFRW Membership Committee created the NFRW Membership Handbook to assist membership chairmen to achieve successful membership growth. It contains many exciting ideas and new hands-on tools to help build membership. The Handbook for New Clubs is a step by step guide to forming a new club complete with fill-in the blank by-laws. The 10 Step Guide to Forming a Satellite Group presents a new concept in building membership. The Virtual Club Handbook provides the steps to create a virtual club online! Best of all, local clubs can now create a professional tri-fold club brochure. Just download and print!

Invite! Inform! Involve! Every member is part of the membership team! Continue the legacy! Invite daughters, nieces and granddaughters to become members. Invite friends to become informed on issues and candidates. Get passionate! Working together we can and will make a difference in member recruitment! The NFRW Membership Committee challenges you to be a “builder” of your local club! Recruit! Recruit! Recruit!

The Membership Committee hopes you find this handbook a valuable tool in your membership job.

NFRW SAMPLE MEMBERSHIP CALENDAR

JANUARY

1. Prepare renewal reminders (possibly include envelopes). Let members know they are missed and their ideas are needed. Collect for email addresses to improve efficiency in communication efforts. Include membership information in all newsletters and bulletins. Renew all officers and chairmen; they must pay their dues in order to be on the Board.
2. Develop a club membership brochure – go to the NFRW website for a sample brochure for downloading and easy printing. Be sure all Club members have brochures to give to prospective members whenever an opportunity presents itself.
3. Appoint a Membership Team - the most POSITIVE club members – different ages and interests to have broader appeal for recruiting. Include a Young Republican to help with technology – Facebook, twitter, etc. Recruit a member to establish a Club website.
4. Use your Secretary of State’s website to identify recruits from your Central Committee, county and local elected officials and State legislators.
5. Make a list of prospective members. Send membership brochure with a membership form.
Sources:
 - a) Chamber of Commerce
 - b) School Directory
 - c) Church Directory
 - d) Neighborhood Association
 - e) Historical Preservation Lists
 - f) Patriotic women’s organizations
 - g) Voter Vault
 - h) Election Day Republican poll workers (get from Election Board/County Clerk)
 - i) Residents with Republican campaign signs in yard
6. Review membership lists from previous years. Locate names of members that dropped their membership. Send personal note inviting them to renew their membership.
7. Teams of club members do a door-to-door campaign inviting neighbors to join – offer local club brochure with a membership form.
8. Start planning your Membership event – create a membership theme, i.e. “Find Your Voice.... Change the World!” Members have three voices with their membership: voice on local level, voice on state level and a voice on the national level.

9. Use email addresses of members and associate members to create a computer distribution list (new list for every 50 names) to cut cost on membership campaigns and renewal efforts. Establish a “buddy” system for those members who do not have email or have a member mail out notices to those not having email.
10. Develop a membership contest and announce to your Club members.
11. Have membership applications available and visible at every meeting.
12. Start finalizing your Program calendar.
13. Create a Letter A Night Campaign. (See Letter A Night Campaign Sample Format!)

FEBRUARY

1. Send a “WANTED – We are missing you” bulletin/newsletter to members who have not paid their dues. Personalize the heading with the member’s name, i.e. (Club name) missing (member name). The body of the bulletin would look like a newsletter with comprehensive membership information. It could include articles featuring a list of members that already have renewed their dues and upcoming programs. Also include a paragraph on ways to volunteer and get involved. Be sure to have a tear off section for the member to return with payment of renewal dues. (Sample attached.)
2. Good month for Membership Event. Be sure to invite precinct and headquarters’ volunteers from the previous election.
3. Hold a special Valentine luncheon. Say “I Love You” to your daughter, granddaughter, sister, mother, etc. with a membership in your local women’s Republican club to continue the Legacy.
4. Have President or a Club member host a Valentine Get Together at her home for members and spouses. Have a signup sheet for names of guests that could be invited to next meeting and sent a membership form.
5. Encourage members to bring guests to a meeting. Have President or Membership Chair send a personal Thank You for attending meeting and enclose a membership brochure.
6. Prepare a handout at your meeting for each member. Head the columns for family, friends, church members, business associates, neighbors, etc. Have each member take 5 minutes and write down names under each column. Have the membership committee collect the lists and cross reference names, review with voter registrations and send invitations to a meeting as well as a membership application. (Sample attached.)
7. Call members to remind them that the Club Membership Directory is getting ready to be printed. Want to make sure that their name is included. Dues had not been received and want to make sure they are listed in the Membership Directory.

MARCH

1. Follow up with women who were invited to Membership Event but did not join. Invite them to your regular monthly meeting.
2. Keep working on renewals.
3. Set a goal for increasing members. Keep members apprised of current membership level.
4. Emphasize the NFRW Membership Legacy awards and achievement award points given for increase in membership.
5. Always list new members in newsletter/bulletin.
6. Hold a special drawing for members who have paid their dues. Make it a unique gift item (stuffed Easter bunny, Easter basket, official dated White House Collector Easter Egg from White House Gift Shop, etc.) or restaurant gift certificate that has been donated to the Club.
7. Plan to attend NFRW Spring Board Meeting and experience Legislative Day on the Hill. Make it a fun trip with lots of members attending.

APRIL

1. Have your program calendar completed. By publishing your exciting programs, your members will be sure to mark their calendars to save the dates for your meetings, and it will be a draw for many ladies to become members so they can enjoy your programs.
2. Personal calls to members who have not paid their renewal dues.
3. Send a bulletin/newsletter to registered Republican women (if you register by Party) in your area. Use your Voter Vault list. Include a letter informing them of your Club and the Federation.

MAY

1. Send a bulletin/newsletter to business women in your community along with a letter emphasizing that Republican policies are business-friendly.
2. Be sure your website is up-to-date and informative. No one wants to go to a website that is old and out of date.
3. Prepare a program to honor all fallen Veterans. There are very few of us who have not been touched with the loss of a loved one fighting for our Freedom.
4. Play patriotic music while attendees are arriving and while exiting.
5. Invite the local VFW, American Legion, etc. members and their spouses to attend the meeting. Perhaps have one or two of these heroes be the featured speaker(s).
6. Consider a slightly reduced membership dues rate for Veterans. They have already sacrificed for us.

JUNE

1. Are you registering voters? Send a bulletin to newly registered voters along with a letter welcoming them to the Republican Party (if you register by Party) and/or to the community. With summer almost in full swing, it is time to get those parades and festivals lined up in which your Club will participate. Your Club will get visibility which will increase your membership. Be sure to have your Club brochures handy to hand out to interested ladies!
2. Host a Welcome Coffee/Lunch/Tea for all NEW members who have joined since January. Consider hosting event in a member's home. Have President greet new members at the door. Include all board members and committee chairs so new members can become better acquainted with the committees and opportunities available. Have a signup sheet for volunteers. Be sure to ask for email address! Offer door prizes. Ask everyone to bring a guest.

JULY

1. Host a picnic. Coordinate a voter registration drive. Be sure to register new voters and change of party voters (if your State registers by Party). Handout club membership forms. Invite elected Republican officials to speak. Keep a list of all voters registered at event and at other events such as your County fair. Place names on prospective membership list.
2. Have lots of red/white/blue events and decorations at your meeting.
3. How about a picnic that offers reduced mid-year membership dues to new ladies who join? Invite your elected Republicans to speak/attend. This offer of reduced dues would only be available to ladies who join at the picnic or event. Include a voter registration drive.
4. Attend New Citizen swearing in ceremonies to register voters and recruit new members for the Club. Give American Flags to each honoree with note from club.
5. If your state registers by Party, continue sending bulletins/newsletters to registered Republican women in your community. Use Voter Vault list.

AUGUST

1. Make sure you are inviting young women who have children returning to school. Get a list of your PTA members, etc.
2. Host a special event or speaker at a luncheon meeting. Set the price of the tickets to include the dues for any new member. Current members would get an extra "something" with their tickets (i.e. if the speaker is an author – members receive a signed copy of the book; new members have their membership dues paid). Sell raffle tickets and charge more for at door tickets to create additional funding.

3. Prepare a handout at your meeting for each member. Head the columns for family, friends, church members, business associates, neighbors, etc. Have each member take 5 minutes and write down names under each column. Have the membership committee collect the lists and cross reference names, review with voter registrations and send invitations to a meeting as well as a membership application.

SEPTEMBER

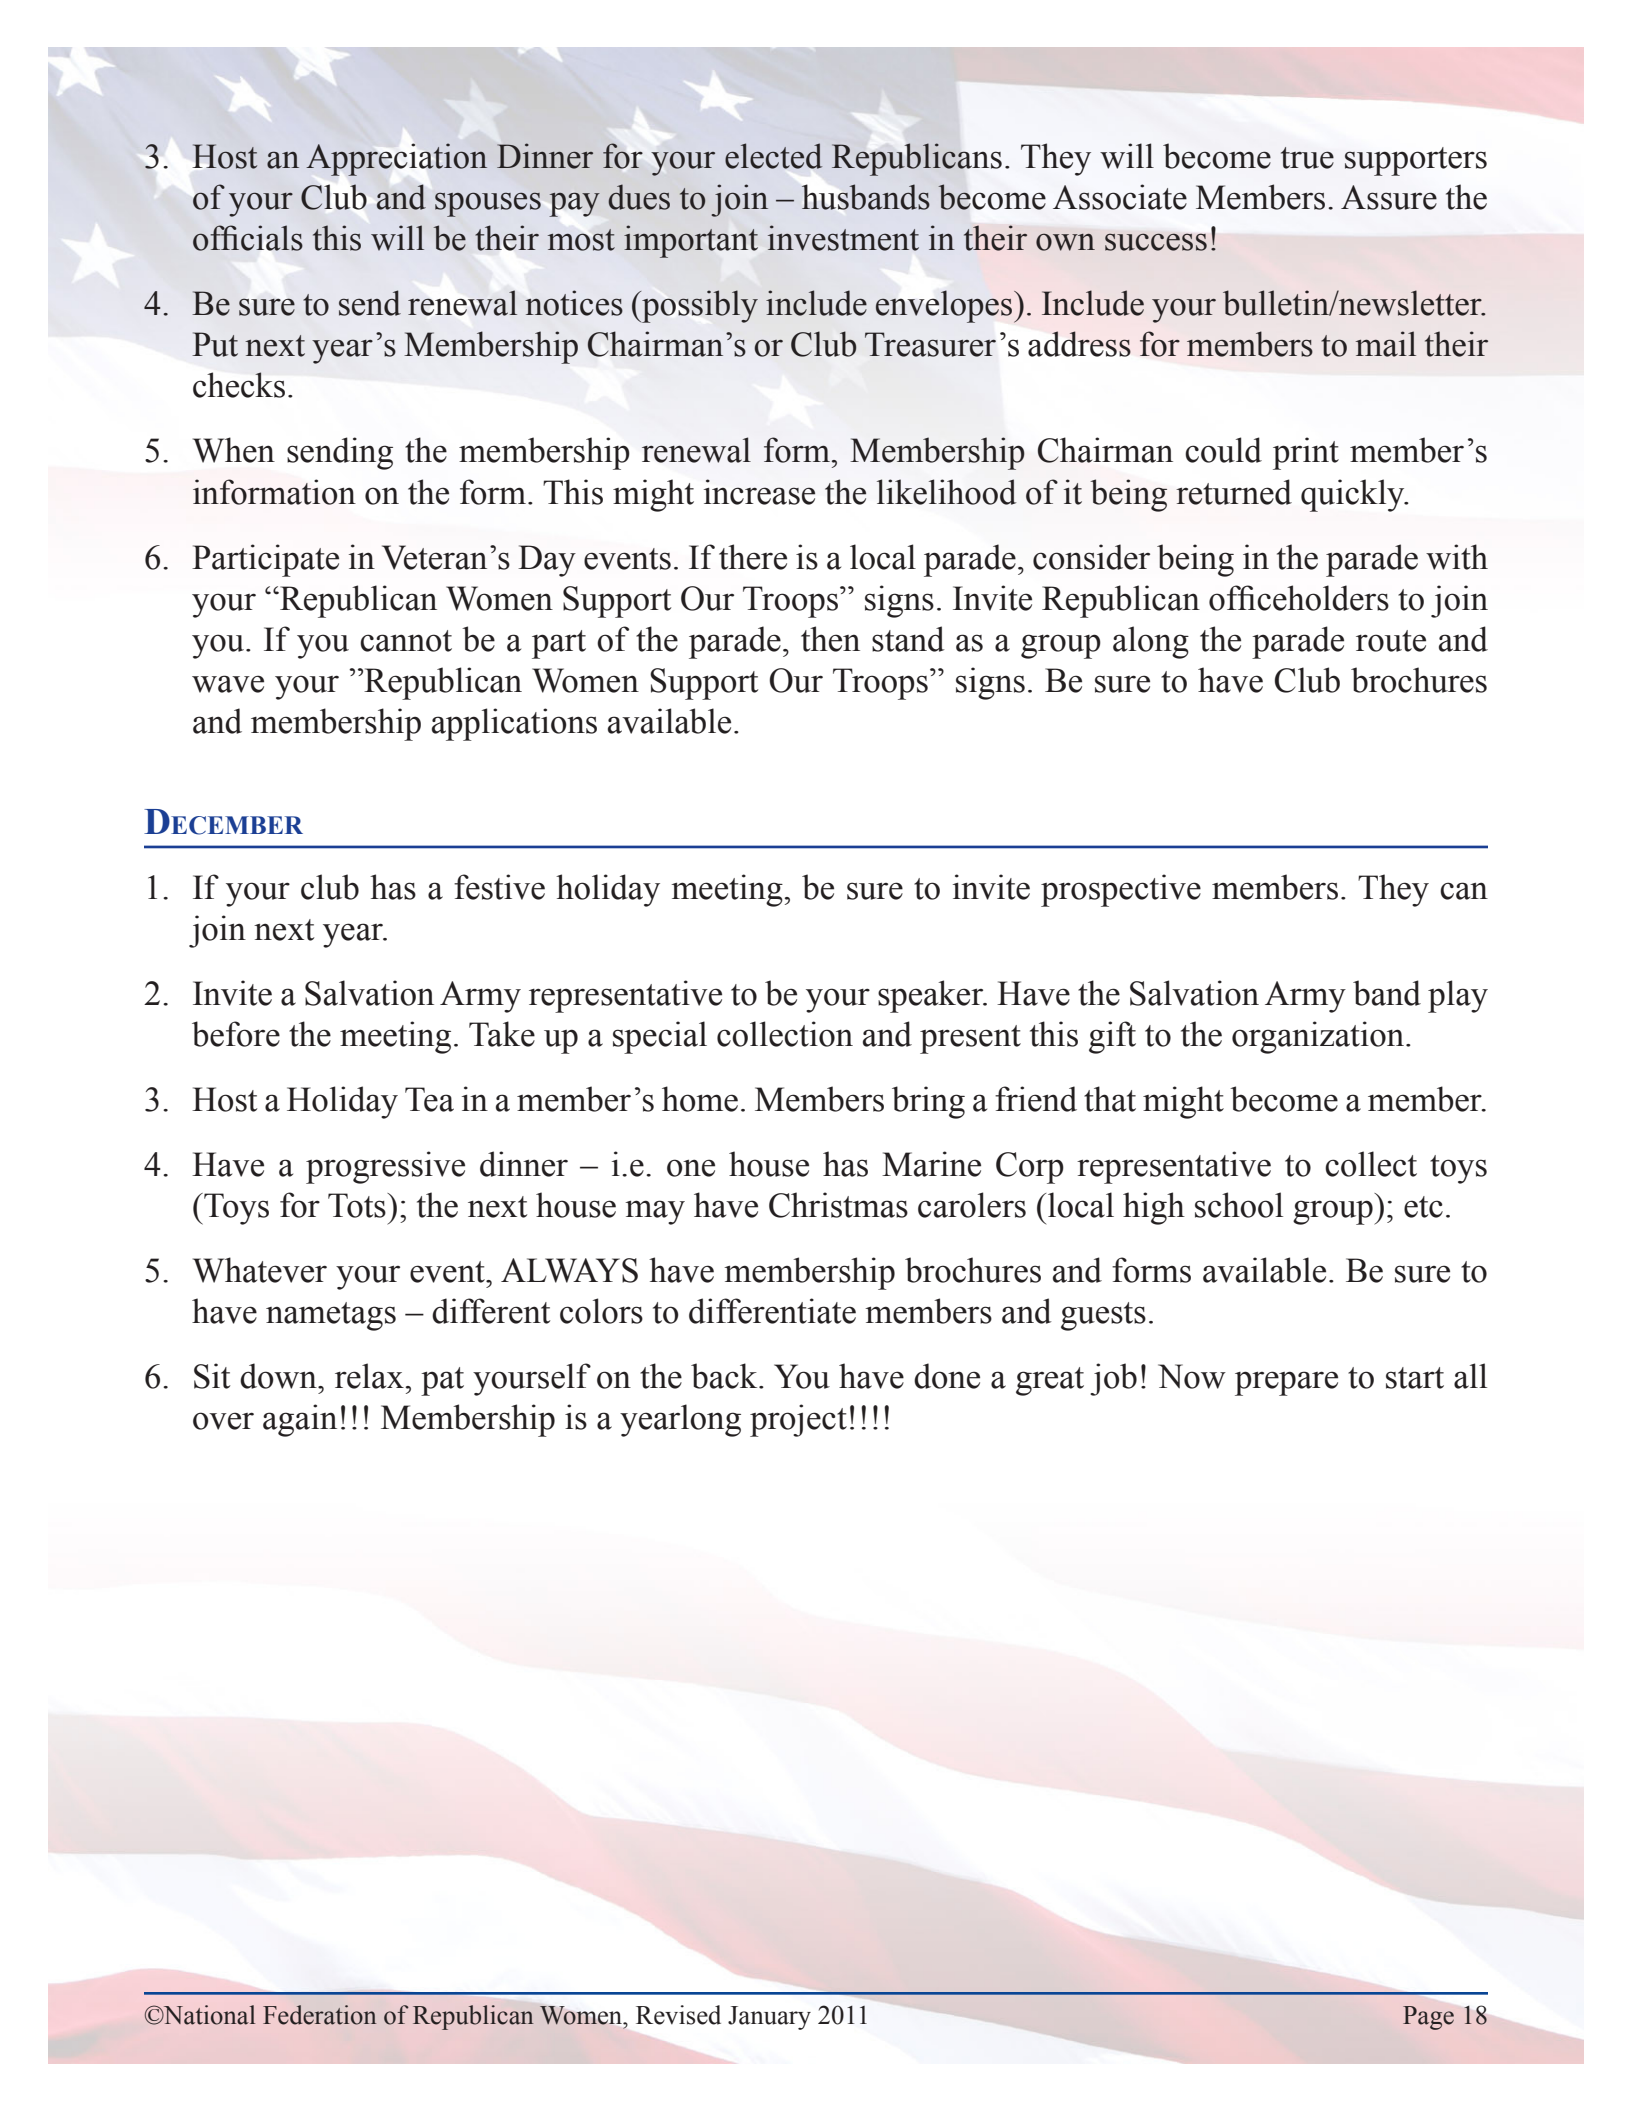

1. Hold a pre-election meeting or a “Back in the Swing” meeting in off-election years. Send a special invitation to all new members for this year.
2. Make plans to attend the NFRW fall board meeting. This will give you an opportunity to network with other women across the Nation and get their membership ideas.
3. Hold a Membership Brunch and silent auction. Invite a well-known speaker and the media. Prepare a Press Release on event for the media.

OCTOBER

1. In an election year, sign up all headquarters’ and precinct workers. Remember, men can become associate members, and they love being included.
2. Walk precincts wearing your Club pin or “Ask Me About My Republican Club” (can be purchased from www.buttonsonline.com). Be sure to have club brochures available for handout.
3. This is the month to place that newspaper ad that simply states, “Wanted: Republican Women” or “Find Your Voice...Change the World.” Just add contact information. Your membership will soar and give you a head start on next year!
4. Start working on the Program calendar for next year. Putting in your requests early will increase your chances of securing the speakers you want when you want them.

NOVEMBER

1. Time for your “14 for 12” promotion. Anyone who joins now will be a member for the rest of the year and all of next year. Be sure to save their names for your first per capita Membership Report for the New Year.
2. Honor charter members, long time members and past presidents. Collect photos of charter members – include old photographs of club events from years past – and put together a Power Point, poster board or similar presentation. Encourage these honored members to invite family members to the meeting. Present your outstanding leaders with a “Certificate of Appreciation” and a copy of the presentation.

- The background of the page is a stylized American flag with stars and stripes. The stars are in the upper left corner, and the stripes run horizontally across the page.
3. Host an Appreciation Dinner for your elected Republicans. They will become true supporters of your Club and spouses pay dues to join – husbands become Associate Members. Assure the officials this will be their most important investment in their own success!
 4. Be sure to send renewal notices (possibly include envelopes). Include your bulletin/newsletter. Put next year's Membership Chairman's or Club Treasurer's address for members to mail their checks.
 5. When sending the membership renewal form, Membership Chairman could print member's information on the form. This might increase the likelihood of it being returned quickly.
 6. Participate in Veteran's Day events. If there is a local parade, consider being in the parade with your "Republican Women Support Our Troops" signs. Invite Republican officeholders to join you. If you cannot be a part of the parade, then stand as a group along the parade route and wave your "Republican Women Support Our Troops" signs. Be sure to have Club brochures and membership applications available.

DECEMBER

1. If your club has a festive holiday meeting, be sure to invite prospective members. They can join next year.
2. Invite a Salvation Army representative to be your speaker. Have the Salvation Army band play before the meeting. Take up a special collection and present this gift to the organization.
3. Host a Holiday Tea in a member's home. Members bring a friend that might become a member.
4. Have a progressive dinner – i.e. one house has Marine Corp representative to collect toys (Toys for Tots); the next house may have Christmas carolers (local high school group); etc.
5. Whatever your event, ALWAYS have membership brochures and forms available. Be sure to have nametags – different colors to differentiate members and guests.
6. Sit down, relax, pat yourself on the back. You have done a great job! Now prepare to start all over again!!! Membership is a yearlong project!!!!

LETTER A NIGHT CAMPAIGN - SAMPLE LETTER MAILED TO PROSPECTIVE MEMBER

XYZ Republican Women
300 Tallowood Drive
Franklin, Louisiana 70538

January 1, 2011

Dear Rebecca,

I would like to personally invite you to become a member of XYZ Republican Women. We have been doing such exciting things to help elect Republican Candidates during the past month! It is also the goal of our club to inform women about local issues as well as encouraging them to run for office.

Our next meeting will be on January 13 at 6:30 p.m. at the Forest Restaurant in Franklin. We will honor Jackie Poole, recipient of the Lady Bird Johnson Keep America National Award. "Don't Throw Trash! Throw Cash!" will be the theme for our meeting to help establish the Keep St. Mary Parish Beautiful Project. More information will be forthcoming on this event!!!

Our last meeting was fabulous. Nearly 100 people came to hear State Treasurer John Kennedy and Sammy Kershaw, candidate for Lieutenant Governor. We also collected over $800 for our Operation We Care Project that will provide phone cards to all Louisiana soldiers in Iraq and Afghanistan so that they can call home for Christmas! Our goal is to raise $1842.00.

We would love for you to join us! I feel sure that you will enjoy it, as much as I have. We would be honored to have you as a member of the Franklin Republican Women.

With warmest regards,

Club President

XYZ Republican Women

(Note: Be sure to enclose a membership form in the letter!!!)

IDEAS TO SPARK MEMBERSHIP

1. Place a small ad in the newspaper. "Wanted: Republican Women." Be sure to put telephone contact in the ad. This has been VERY successful.
2. Members drive their neighborhoods during campaign time. Write down the addresses with Republican signs in their yards. Invite these residents to join us!!!!
3. Walk neighborhoods for candidates. If you experience any interest shown by the resident for Republicans, give them a club brochure. Invite to club meeting!
4. All current members carry membership brochure with them. Hand out at church meetings, political rallies, social gatherings, etc.
5. Monthly postcard can be online postcard at no cost! Send meeting announcement to local press: television, radio, and newspaper.
6. Be more visible. March in parades, set up a booth at fairs and festivals, etc. Order a banner for your club. It can be carried in parades and hung in tents at the fairs or on tables. More visibility means more members!!!!
7. Have a Suggestion Box.
8. Calendar of future Speakers Available at Registration Desk
9. Invite state and local elected officials to have sign up booths for volunteers. Members bring guests. Membership forms available for potential new members to join club!
10. Hold Appreciation Dinner for Elected Officials. Pre meeting meal cooked by members to honor service of elected Republican Officials. Express appreciation for a job well done. Each became a true supporter of the club.
11. Membership forms on Registration Table. Save Meeting Registration List from each meeting and make potential member list. Ask for email addresses.
12. Create a logo for club. Hang a Club logo sign for each meeting.
13. Invite Media to Meeting. Have a prepared press release for media attending the meeting.
14. Have an annual membership drive. Event is fun and out of the box.
15. Offer "member-only" events to increased numbers!
16. Recruit elected Republican women to belong to a Club! (We also snag the elected men for Associate members!!)
17. Create survey to determine successful club membership programs. Include this information on the Membership Recruitment Tip Sheet.
18. The only way for our organization to stay strong and grow is through our members. Now, perhaps more than ever, it is imperative that we gather all Republican women together to make our voices stronger!!!
19. Birthday Cards to Members (Retention): Birthday cards makes members feel appreciated. Obtain a calendar and place member's names on birth dates. To save on stamps, call members on their birthdays. Ask for concerns and suggestions for club. Club grew fast and made it hard to put names and faces together. After a telephone conversation, ask birthday member to say hi at the next meeting. Great feedback, club members feel appreciated, and more important helps to learn about the members.

20. Old Fashion Political Picnic! Have Bands playing before and after picnic. Hot dogs, soft drinks & chips were served.
21. Raffle Drawing for Members Bringing Potential Members: Names placed in drawing for gift certificate to local restaurant for those that bring guests to the meeting. Ask local restaurants to donate $25 gift certificate. Great advertising for restaurant!
22. Business Cards: Create a business card for officers with contact information. At the bottom of the card, include date, time and place of meetings. Whenever someone shows interest in Republican Women, give them a business card. Ask everyone you meet to come as guest to meeting.

IDEAS FOR MEMBERSHIP RETENTION!

1. Assign Welcome Committee.

- At least one member assigned to welcome members at the door.
- Assist in finding place to sit. There is nothing worse than going from table to table where napkins are thrown across the chair as being “saved” and they are not asked to join the group.

2. Make members feel special.

- Listen to their ideas.
- Ask about their talents– use them in areas where they shine.
- Call them by name.
- Appoint them to committees.
- Ask them to work on special events or projects.
- During upcoming campaigns, ask them to head up or at least get involved in volunteer projects such as telephone banks, working in candidate offices or voter registration. This will educate them in the election process & keep them interested.

3. Introduce members at every meeting. Make special effort to introduce the new or prospective members. Tell them how glad you are they are there. If you do this at every meeting everyone will begin to feel welcome, comfortable and important.

4. Recruit elected Republican women in to your clubs. This will peak the interest of members since they will have an inside track on information and get to know the officials.

5. Review old membership lists. Keep track of “old” members who have not renewed dues or dropped out. Call to invite back. Ask why. Listen to concerns. Do something about it. Be sincere. If they do rejoin, continue to check with them to see if their needs are met.

6. Provide excellent programs. Members will want to be a part of the club.

- Educate members in current events and current issues.
- Day at the Legislature should be a highlight of the year.
- Attend NFRW Legislative Day in Washington, D.C.
- Invite local and state candidates to speak to your club.

7. Keep members abreast of issues. Answer their concerns.

8. Offer programs they could get no other place else at this price! Examples: Governor or candidates, Congressional Delegation, Republican National Committeeman and Woman. (If state party brings a speaker to your state perhaps you can also book the speaker for your club and not have to pay the entire bill. Being able to see a high profile Republican will make members want to get involved and stay involved.)

9. Create New Member Orientation Packet to hand out to new members. Include a Welcome Letter from President, current newsletter, Letter from President, calendar of events, etc. See New Member Welcome Orientation Section in NFRW Handbook.
 10. Keep business cards with club meeting information always available. Use to invite members to come or come back. Hand them the card. Keep membership form in purse. Keep small notebook in purse for writing email addresses or phone numbers so you can respond to them after you promise them you will. This will impress them!
 11. Design a pin for your club or state. Present the pin to new members or at least make it available for sale so they can wear it to say they are proud to be a member of Republican Women! Others will notice it and ask what it stands for --- this begins the process of inviting other people to be members. My experience has been that when others find out I'm a member of Republican Women they show respect and want to know more about what we do and how they can get involved.
 12. My strongest suggestion for retaining members is to make each member feel that their opinion is important and that they are part of the club.
 13. You MUST ASK. Invite friends to join. Many are just waiting to be asked to be involved.
 14. Create special club newsletter to mail to members that have not renewed membership and have not attended meetings. (See Sample Newsletter.)

IDEAS TO RECRUIT YOUNG REPUBLICAN WOMEN

- 1. Recruit Young Republican Women! The best place to find Young Republican Women are family members. Consider sponsoring a membership for your daughter, granddaughter, or niece. Be sure to include email address of Young Republican Women in order to receive the NFRW Capitol Connection spotlighting issues. Liberal college professors and media give liberal views on issues.
- 2. Create a Young Republican Women's Membership Event. Example: "Sassy Sandals and Summer Slushes." Invite Young Republican Women to enjoy summer drinks in casual atmosphere. Invite state or national officer to talk to young women. Invite a younger officer that would relate to the professional young women. Host event after work. Invite family members. Invite professional working young women.
- 3. Introduce Young Republican Women attending meetings.
- 4. Consider an Outstanding Young Republican Woman Award to recognize outstanding achievement of an outstanding woman.
- 5. Sponsor college Republican women to attend club meetings. "Coffee Cup for College Republicans" can be passed around during meeting to collect change from members to pay for meals of young guests. Some members might serve as sponsors for this special project.
- 6. Create a "Young Republican Woman Literacy Grant." Young Republican Women educators can submit application for mini grant ($50 or more) to fund special classroom event or project. Young Republican Women applicants must be member of the club. Award literacy grant at meeting. Invite the media to take a photo or submit photo with press release to newspaper.
- 7. Donate a Mamie Eisenhower Library Book to a classroom or school library to honor Young Republican educator. Submit photo for newspaper with news release.
- 8. Consider a Young Republican Women's Satellite Group for your local club. (See Satellite Group Page.)
 - Working Young Republican Women like to meet after work (5 p.m. to 6 p.m.)
 - Meetings should be limited to one hour.
 - Meeting site might be at a restaurant, local library, or bank meeting room.

- 10. Network with existing Young Republicans at college or university located nearby. Help them grow.

FORMING A SATELLITE GROUP

WHY FORM A SATELLITE GROUP?

- Satellite Groups can become New Clubs
- Satellite Groups Can Build Membership in Sparsely Populated States
- Satellite Groups Developed to Grow Existing Club
- Help Form A New Club in the Future
- New clubs develop from independent groups, from within an established club and in new locations. All are healthy growth and can be encouraged and nurtured through the satellite concept.
- An independent group can benefit from starting as a satellite to an established club through learning about the Federation and how a club operates. As a satellite, they develop a cohesive identity to build leadership and objectives.
- Healthy clubs grow and understand the outreach of developing new leadership. Like raising a family, we want to give them “roots and help them to fly”! A healthy start can be accomplished in a satellite group.
- Activists understand the need for club development in new areas. Your club can “adopt” the next town or county and seek out women to start a new club. Establish the nucleus group as a satellite to your club and help them grow.

10 STEPS FOR SATELLITE GROUPS

Satellite Groups are an exciting way to grow your Club membership. These Groups function like a committee and are a fundamental part of the parent Club. They are governed by the Club Executive Committee and can be as diverse as your leadership’s imagination!

It’s as easy as 1 to 10:

- 1. Analyze your club’s “community”. Are there women who would become members or more active if offered a different meeting time, format, or venue? Commit to meeting those needs! You may develop more than one group!
- 2. Appoint a Satellite Committee Chair to explore opportunities to meet individualized needs. Chairman reports directly to the Club Executive Committee.
- 3. Establish Club “Standing Rules” for how a Satellite Group operates.
 - Functions as an extension of the Federated Club and is governed by the Club bylaws.
 - Club Executive Committee appoints a Chair and/or Co-chairs for each Satellite Group.
 - Satellite Group Chair or Co-Chairs will establish purpose, guidelines for their Group and recommend group leadership for approval by the Club’s Executive Committee

- Club budget will have a line item for each Satellite Group similar to a committee within the club. Satellite Group projects and fundraisers will be approved by Club Executive Committee. All funds will be held in Federated Club account under Satellite Group line item.
4. Focus on the demographic underserved in your Republican community. Be creative and open to new ideas. Here are some suggestions:
 - Working Business Women who need a different meeting time
 - Young Republican Women Satellite Group
 - “Moms and Kids” meet where children can play: Libraries, Community Centers, McDonalds
 - “Moms Day” - meet at Starbucks or breakfast place while children are in school
 - “Mothers Night Out” - Dad babysits!
 - Dinner Discussion Group: Members or couples who wish to study issues (perhaps a dinner group at member’s home) Plan ahead the topic for research and discussion.
 - Saturday morning coffee/round table
 - Book club
 - High School Republicans and Home School Republicans - Parents host Satellite meetings. (Students make great campaign workers.)
 - Neighboring town to form the nucleus of a New Club
 - Study Group - meet in someone’s home during the day or lunch
 - Senior activity group - lots of possibilities here
 - Start a Satellite club with the idea of mentoring to club charter - the next town, county or neighborhood.
 - Candidate Support Group - Meet with candidates; offer grass roots support; become surrogate speakers; attend candidate events.
 5. Set a convenient time to attract target group: evening, right after work, Saturday coffee, etc.
 6. Get a convenient location: restaurant, member’s home, meeting hall.
 7. Plan an agenda. Keep to promised meeting length.
 8. Invite an informative speaker. Interesting programs and exciting speakers energize your group and attract new members.
 9. Advertise! Use your club newsletter, website, and your club’s Facebook page. Develop your Communications Email List to notify members, community leaders, friends, and anyone who needs to hear your Republican message!
 10. Welcome Club members while you Recruit new members to Satellite Group who join as a Federated Club member. Nurture enthusiasm and activism!
