

PRESIDENT'S BIOGRAPHY

Cyndi Collins has been a political activist in southern Arizona for the past decade. As owner of a consulting firm, she worked as a registered lobbyist and has served as campaign manager for 5 political candidates.

She is an elected Precinct Committeeman, served for 3 years as Legislative District Chairman and on the Pima County Central Committee for 6 years.

In 2007, she co-founded the Tucson Eastside Republican Club, an organization that serves the political needs of both men and women who work during the day and cannot attend luncheon meetings.

At the state party level, Cyndi serves as Member-at-Large in Congressional District 8 on the Arizona Republican Party Executive Committee.

In 2003, she was the Southern Arizona Coordinator for the state party, and in 2004 was Southern Arizona Director of the Bush Team Leader Program.

Cyndi was honored to serve as a Delegate to the 2004 Republican National Convention and served as a member on the Permanent Organization Committee. In January of 2005, she attended the Presidential Inauguration of George W. Bush. She is most proud to have served as a 2004 Arizona Presidential Elector.

Cyndi and her husband, Montey, live in Tucson with their teenage daughters Ashley and Caitlyn.
